2026 Josai Central European Exchange Program: Terms and Conditions

Acceptance Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Tuition and fees The cost of tuition will be waived. ● Financial Support A living allowance of 80,000 yen per month for 11 months. The scholarship program is implemented thanks to a grant provided by the Japan Students Support Organization (JASSO). The Japanese Studies Program (Bekka) is not eligible for the scholarship as it is designed for beginners in Japanese between JLPT N5~N3.
Japanese Language Proficiency	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Due to the limited number of classes taught in English at both universities, we recommend that applicants have Japanese language proficiency sufficient to participate in classes taught in Japanese. If the applicant does not possess a JLPT N1 or N2 certificate, we ask that an instructor familiar with the student's language skills write a letter of recommendation stating that the applicant's Japanese language proficiency satisfies the required level.
Required Academic Grades	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● As the program is funded by JASSO, their rules on applicant's academic records apply. ● Link to Student Exchange Support Program (Scholarship for Short-term Study in Japan) page by JASSO: https://www.jasso.go.jp/en/ryugaku/scholarship_j/ukeire.html ● JASSO grade requirements are not applicable for the Japanese Studies Program; however, it is important that the applicant has sufficient grades for an exchange student to represent their home university.
Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● There is no age restriction to apply for the exchange program. ● Applicants must be registered as a full-time undergraduate or graduate student in one of our partner universities at the time of application and throughout the entire period of their study period. Failure to maintain a registered student status will result in the suspension of the student exchange. ● Applicants must be able to obtain a "Student" status of residency in Japan to participate in the program. (Applicants who already have the legal status of "Resident in Japan" are not eligible to apply for the program.) ● Applicants must demonstrate both high levels of motivation and academic achievement. ● Applicants must be recommended by the university at which they are enrolled. ● Applicants must be available to start classes in September. ● Applicants enrolled are expected to take Japanese language courses during their time in Japan. ● Students are expected to return to their home countries once the exchange program is completed.
Duration	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The duration of the exchange program is one academic year (two semesters or four quarters) starting in September, 2026.

- We have noticed several cases where the scanning process was not properly executed. Please recheck the result of the scan before sending it.

Selection Procedure

- (1). Vetting of application by Josai University and Josai International University (April/May).

We ask applicants to express their commitment to work hard and to use this opportunity to enhance their future career possibilities. Also, we hope that they will work in some capacity as a bridge of goodwill between the two countries in the future. Other various factors, such as field of study, language ability, the balance of the number of students among the home universities of applicants, etc. may be considered.

- (2). Screening interviews may be implemented.
- (3). The number of scholarships granted by JASSO is for 20 students. However, if an applicant is not selected for the Josai Central European Scholarship Program, there is also the opportunity for the applicant to be selected and accepted as an exchange student at either JIU faculties or JU's Japanese Studies Program (Bekka). The number of exchange student intake at the Japanese Studies Program may be revised based on availability.
- (4). Students will receive the result of the selection procedure via their home university (mid to late May).

Students accepted to JIU will be required not only to submit the application documents but also to enter required information into the online system used by JIU at a later date. Regarding the online system, both the student and the assigned coordinator will be contacted after the selection process is finished and the student's admission is decided. Please note that students applying to JU are not required to enter information into a separate online system.

After all information of the participants is confirmed, the department in charge at the host university (both JU and JIU) will contact each accepted student directly about details of the immigration procedures.

- (5). Students are to arrive in Japan in September on a designated date set by the host university.
